Sinovac to Transfer Stock Exchange Listing to NASDAQ Global Market

BEIJING, Nov. 3 /PRNewswire-Asia/ -- Sinovac Biotech Ltd. (NYSE Amex: SVA), a leading developer and provider of vaccines in China, announced today that it will voluntarily transfer its stock exchange listing from the NYSE Amex to the NASDAQ Global Market.

It is anticipated that Sinovac's common shares will commence trading on NASDAQ on or about November 16, 2009. Sinovac will continue to trade under the ticker symbol "SVA."

Mr. Weidong Yin, Chairman, President and CEO of Sinovac, stated, "The transfer of our stock listing to NASDAQ demonstrates our continued focus on creating shareholder value. We appreciate the support that the NYSE Amex has provided over the years. However, we believe a NASDAQ listing will provide Sinovac with opportunities to increase investor and analyst interest and provide our investors with a better environment for trading our shares. In addition, as NASDAQ is globally recognized as a leading exchange for biopharmaceutical companies, we believe a NASDAQ listing will also place us in the same marketplace as our peers."

"NASDAQ is the home of innovative biotech and healthcare companies and we are proud to welcome Sinovac, a pioneer in Chinese biotech and engineer of China's homegrown H1N1 vaccine," said Mr. Bob McCooley, Senior Vice President and Head of Global Listing of NASDAQ OMX Group.
